FREE National Child Day celebration at the Campbell River Community Centre, Nov. 20

Join the fun! Bring your children ages six and under to our FREE National Child Day celebration at the Campbell River Community Centre from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 20.

They'll enjoy:

- Family gym
- Cardboard City
- Play-Doh Centre
- "Make it and take it" crafts
- Paint your own face station
- Safety Bear
- Family Place Preschool Activities
- Bounce-A-Rama
- First Nations Drumming
- Storytime
- Shooshoo The Clown
- The Music In Me Dance Party
- Rhythmic Ribbon Dance

There will also be a concession by donation – and BC Transit will offer free rides to the National Child Day event.

Thank you to all sponsors for making this event possible: 2DayFM, the Campbell River Mirror, Pacific Care, Sears, Success by 6, BC Transit, Laichwiltach Family Life Society and Campbell River Family Services.

National Child Day was established by the United Nations in 1993 to commemorate the United Nations' adoption of two documents centered on children's rights: the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child on Nov. 20, 1959, and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child on Nov. 20, 1989.
