

2024 PROPERTY TAX INFOSHEET

Property taxes are due by 11:59 p.m., JULY 2, 2024

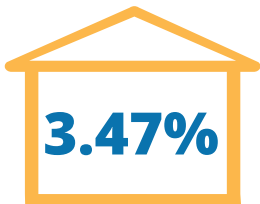

Please review your Property Tax Notice for payment option details

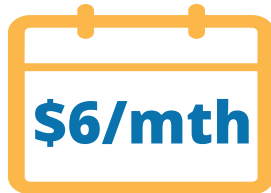

Your property taxes and user fees fund more than 100 services in the community – from clean water, road maintenance and fire protection services to the spectacular sea walk, parks and special events.

2024 Property Taxes

This year, residents will see a rate increase:

2024
Tax Increase

Average monthly increase

(for average single-family home, valued at $678,000)

Budget Highlights

Council has worked hard to reduce the tax increase while ensuring reliable service delivery and sustainable investment in infrastructure and strategic priorities. The 3.47% increase also tackles inflation, supply chain issues, labour market shortages, fixed increases to City contracts and adds necessary resources.

- ✓ Maintains core services
- ✓ Invests in Capital Infrastructure
- ✓ Covers Incremental Enhancements to services

Did you Know:

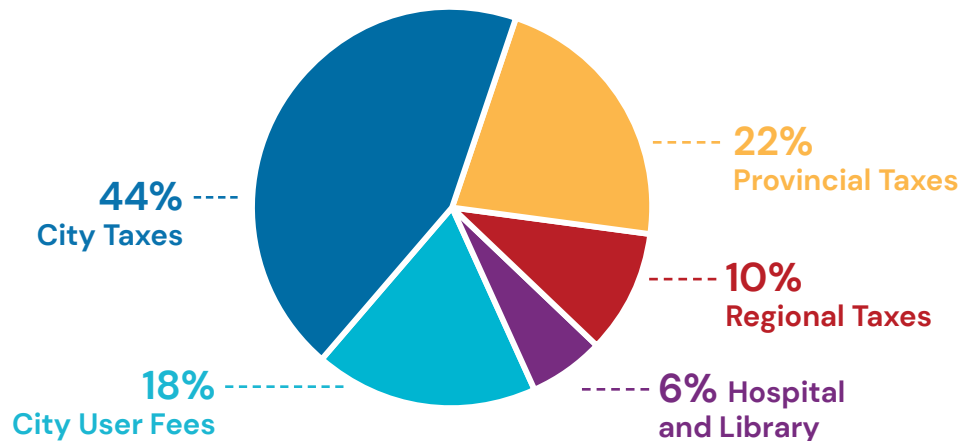

In a recent review of 13 other BC municipalities, including seven on Vancouver Island, Campbell River's 2024 tax increase is expected to be the lowest.

Where do your taxes go?

2024 Tax Distribution

Your property tax bill includes taxes for the City of Campbell River, as well as taxes collected on behalf of other organizations/agencies. See the breakdown on the right.

Payment Info and Questions

Payment Options: An overview of all the payments options is available on the reverse of the property tax notice, and online at campbellriver.ca/property-taxes

Payment Processing: The City must have received payment by 11:59 p.m. on July 2. Depending on the method of payment you chose, you may need to allow processing time for payment to be completed.

Questions? taxes@campbellriver.ca | 250.286.5700 | campbellriver.ca/property-taxes