19th Annual City Stewardship Awards – Call for 2020 Nominations

Nominations are now open for City recognition of environmentally-conscious people working to preserve the integrity, stability, and beauty of the City's natural areas.

Between now and Sept. 11, individuals, groups, businesses, industry representatives and youth who have contributed to the common cause of environmental stewardship can be nominated for the following categories:

- Habitat Protection / Creation (who's rebuilding and restoring habitat in natural areas?)
- Youth Special Recognition (who's keeping the stewardship tradition alive and thriving?)
- Environmental Excellence (for outstanding achievement)

"The City's Stewardship Awards provide an opportunity to honour citizen dedication to conservation, and for ongoing work to improve the beauty and health of our local environment," says Mayor Andy Adams.

If you know of environmental ambassadors in Campbell River who deserve recognition, download a nomination form from the What's New section of the City's website (www.campbellriver.ca). Paper copies are available at the main floor of City Hall. For more information regarding stewardship recognition, please email terri.martin@campbellriver.ca or phone at 250-286-5711.

For public safety and to comply with provincial health prohibitions on large gatherings, public viewing of the City's 19th annual recognition ceremony will be a livestreamed event from the Tidemark Theatre. Tune in Sept. 27 from 4 to 4:30 p.m. In past years, this ceremony was held as part of the Fall Festival at Haig-Brown House.
