

August 19, 2022

---

FALL RECREATION GUIDE NOW AVAILABLE AND REGISTRATION OPEN

As of Friday, August 19, 2022, the Fall 2022 Recreation Guide, which covers September and October City recreation programming, is available online, and registration is open.

“The City is excited to present a new and improved recreation guide, with an updated layout and design that shows off the array of programs Campbell River residents have to choose from,” says Manager of Recreation and Culture Robin Mitchell. “As you flip through the guide, programs and events will jump out that you and your family will want to try!”

City recreation programs, events and classes offer something for everyone. Open the guide and discover PLAY Campbell River - Try It Month, where sports organizations offer youth classes to introduce a new sport. Mark your calendars with the many events taking place, such as Trick or Treat, or the Run for the Cure event hosted by the City and the Campbell River Dragon Boat Society. Maybe you'll Sign up for a class after reviewing the fitness schedule!

Check out the Fall 2022 Recreation Guide at www.campbellriver.ca/recreation-guide. Program registration is now open and can be completed online at www.campbellriver.ca/registration, in person at the Community Centre, or by calling 250-286-1161. Keep up to date on all City programming by following our Facebook page www.facebook.com/Campbellriverrec.

The Sportsplex renovations are nearing completion, but for September and October, the Recreation & Culture Department will continue to operate out of the Campbell River Community Centre.

The City looks forward to a fall filled with laughs, sunshine, fun and play with the Campbell River community!

###

Contact: Meghan Lawley, Recreation and Culture Supervisor | 250-286-1161 | Meghan.lawley@campbellriver.ca