

October 15, 2022

PRELIMINARY 2022 MUNICIPAL ELECTION RESULTS FOR THE CITY OF CAMPBELL RIVER

Preliminary election results are in for the City of Campbell River Mayor and six Councillors.

Mayor-elect is Kermit Dahl (5,468 votes).

Council-elect members are:

Susan Sinnott (5,378 votes)

Ben Lanyon (5,275 votes)

Sean Smyth (5,190 votes)

Ron Kerr (5,016 votes)

Doug Chapman (4,061 votes)

Tanille Johnston (3,795 votes)

Thank you to everyone who voted and participated in the local general election. A total of 10,359 ballots were cast, and voter turnout was approximately 35 percent. In 2018, voter turnout was approximately 25 percent.

Preliminary City of Campbell River election results have been posted online at campbellriver.ca/election.

Following a final review of the ballot counts, the city clerk will declare official election results before 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, October 19, 2022, from City Hall Council Chambers.

Municipal election results will also be posted on the CivicInfoBC website.

Election results for the office of school trustee are being tabulated by the Strathcona Regional District and will also be posted on the CivicInfoBC website.

Find all election information at www.campbellriver.ca/election2022. Further information or questions can be directed to Elle Brovold, Chief Election Officer, Ph. 250.286.5709 or elections@CampbellRiver.ca.

###

Contact: Elle Brovold, Chief Election Officer | 250.286.5709 | elections@CampbellRiver.ca