Additional information about this alternative approval process can be found at City Hall or on the City of Campbell website at www.campbellriver.ca/noticeofelectors.

Elector Eligibility

In order to sign an elector response form in relation to the alternative approval process, a person must either be a resident elector or a non-resident property elector. A person must not sign more than one elector response form in relation to this alternative approval process. If you are not an elector for the area of the approval process, do not sign this elector response form.

RESIDENT ELECTOR

A resident elector is an individual who is entitled to sign an elector response form during an alternative approval process by virtue of living within that jurisdiction. When signing an elector response form, a resident elector must:

- Be 18 years of age or older,
- Be a Canadian citizen,
- Have lived in British Columbia for at least six months immediately before signing this form,
- Be a resident in the City of Campbell River and in the area defined for the alternative approval process as of the day they complete the elector response form,
- Not be disqualified under the Local Government Act, or any other enactment from voting in a local election or be otherwise disqualified by law.

NON-RESIDENT PROPERTY ELECTOR

A non-resident property elector is an individual that does not live in the City of Campbell River and who is entitled to sign an elector response form during an alternative approval process by virtue of owning property in that jurisdiction. When signing an elector response form, a non-resident property elector must:

- Not be entitled to register as a resident elector in the jurisdiction,
- Be 18 years of age or older,
- Be a Canadian citizen,
- Have lived in British Columbia for at least six months immediately before signing this form,
- Have been a registered owner of real property in the City of Campbell River for at least 30 days before signing this form,
- Be a registered owner of the real property, either as joint tenants or tenants in common, and not be holding the property in trust for a corporation or another trust; and,
- Not be registered as a non-resident property elector in relation to any other parcel of real property within the City of Campbell River.
- Not be disqualified under the Local Government Act, or any other enactment from voting in a local election, or be otherwise disqualified by law.

Note: Only one non-resident property elector may sign an elector response form per property, regardless of how many people own the property. That owner must have the written consent of a majority of the other property owners to sign the response form on their behalf. Property owned in whole or in part by a corporation does not qualify under the non-resident property elector provisions. The City of Campbell River has forms available for non-resident property electors to use when gaining written consent from the other property owners for this AAP.
